

Indiana's Privacy Law should not be pre-empted by the FCC. I do not wish to receive telemarketing calls from companies that consider me to be an "existing customer". I have realized a staggering reduction in telemarketing calls since signing up with Indiana's "Do Not Call List". Do not lower our standards in Indiana!